1.2 Basic Functions and Scenarios

The DSS7016S2 general surveillance management server (hereinafter referred to as "the Platform") is a flexible, easily-extendable, highly-reliable and professional video surveillance product. It meets the requirements of large and medium-sized projects through distributed deployment. In addition to the basic video surveillance business, it also delivers a number of AI functions such as target detection, face recognition, number plate recognition, and people counting. It also provides the add-on module of access control management. These functions enable the platform to be widely used in chain supermarket, casino, safe city, road monitoring, medium and large-sized campus surveillance and more scenarios.
